

ZION NEWS

For the Members, Family and Friends of Zion Blue Mountain United Church of Christ

Recently, Rev. Sharon Morris, Associate Conference Minister of the Pennsylvania Southeast Conference, invited congregations to a workshop titled: "" While I do not believe that Zion Blue Mountain fits the 'closure' scenario, the observations she makes about the search environment are important for us to be aware of. Here is an excerpt of her invitation to the workshop.

The only thing that is constant in life is change. That is certainly true in many facets of our lives and especially in the life of the church.

It has been my privilege to work with the churches of the Pennsylvania Southeast Conference over the last 5 years in the area of Search & Call. Over these last 5 years several things have become apparent:

1. Whether a church is in the search process or not, our churches are in transition.
2. Good candidates are able to choose where they want to go. It is the candidates' market. At times our churches are taking too long to choose a candidate and by the time they do, the candidate has taken another position.
3. Good pastors who are loved by their congregations as much as the pastor loves them; pastors who are being treated well and compensated; pastors that don't have to battle every fall during budget time over their salary and benefits are staying put. There are congregations in PSEC who treat their pastors well and respect their pastors.
4. Good candidates demand and get good salaries and benefits. So, churches that are "pinching pennies" will lose out on good candidates.
5. Pastors coming into the UCC come to this denomination because of our inclusivity. However, many of PSEC churches are not there yet. Candidates are looking for ONA congregations and they are not interested in going to battle over that issue.
6. There are not enough pastors who want part-time work for all of the churches wanting their own part-time pastor.
7. PSEC congregations want things to stay the same and are afraid of the future which will bring change. Those congregations willing to surrender to the future trusting in God, will be fine; those that don't...
8. Unfortunately, there will be more church closures.

I believe, that these observations notwithstanding, our search process can be a time of moving into a "hopeful future." Zion Blue Mountain is a lively congregation that simply must move deliberately and discerningly into the future. The 'environment' is what it is, so I simply offer her observations as a way of better understanding the "Call" part of this process.

See Ya in Church,
Pastor Jon

The Deacon's Coin Purse:

"Pennies from Heaven" as the saying goes means receiving something unexpected when it's really needed. But we can't take our pennies with us when we go to heaven. So we should use our pennies for something expectantly for the church to use if it is in need. And if you think about it...pennies saved make dollars. We all must pull together as good stewards to help our church meet obligations. Those obligations don't go away during the summer months when less is found in the collection plate. Please add your summer offerings (if you plan on being away) to your spring months envelopes to keep this beacon on the hill shining.

Sincerely Your Deacons,

Sharon, Susan, Missy and Wendy

Your change can change a life

Mary's Shelter provides residential and non-residential services for pregnant women and women with newborns who are in need of a supportive environment because of a lack of suitable housing or favorable family relationships. While caring for women in need, Mary's Shelter prepares mothers with newborns for independent living and a vision of hope for the future.

We are participating in their Baby Bottle Campaign beginning on May 13 (Mother's Day). All you need to do is come to the church and pick up a baby bottle provided to you through Mary's Shelter. Fill the bottle with your loose change for the month and return the bottle to the church before Father's Day. It's that simple. If you fill a bottle and would like another just grab one, we will have plenty.

If you are interested in helping Mary's Shelter check out the bulletin board for their Spring Newsletter.

The money raised by us will receive a 25% match through various local businesses. If you have any questions please speak to Lisa Shupp or Christine Bashore, Co-chairs of the Mission committee.

This summary represents a stabilization of our finances at Zion Blue Mountain United Church of Christ. It also represents a deficit in our year-to-date ledger, as we would expect right before Easter. So while stewardship and attendance has improved, we can always increase our faithfulness. Thank you for your generous sharing of your time, talent, and treasure.
