Hunger isn't seasonal, which is why our year-round food drives are so important. Bring any nonperishable food item to offer on the 15th. Join us to celebrate the bountiful harvest with music to fill your soul.

Come out to welcome some guest musicians!

Sunday December 27 at 9 am

We will be offering an "Old Fashion Christmas" concert. Songs, hymns, and carols. From the traditional to the modern. Christmas music the entire family can enjoy! Because of Covid - 19 restrictions this will be a musical concert ONLY with no singing.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

I always have a hard time picking my favorite season of the year. They all have their gifts. However, when forced to I always will finally answer with the season of Fall. Now that we are here in it, I don't regret it. The air, the leaves, the breezes, the clear signs of change. Yes, things are dying, but we know they will come again, and in their dying, often give back. Yes, many things stop growing, but we harvest now as well. There's another thing about the Fall I've come to appreciate. The Autumn Rain.

Now, I'm not talking about the hit rock song by Guns n Roses, "November Rain," though I love that as well. And it has several great lines like, "nothing last forever, even cold November rain." It's worth listening to again, if you like that genre.

Honestly, I don't really associate rain with Fall like I might other things. Usually when I think of seasonal rain, I think of those April showers or maybe late afternoon Summer storms. Yet, rain is a thing in Autumn. Rain is a "thing" in all the of the seasons for us. It just happens, and it is something we need to sustain life. Despite my lack of attention to it, most years it just comes...droughts do occur, but they are not the norm in our area.

Rain is mentioned often in scripture, even Autumn rains. Here is just one place:

Be patient, then, brothers and sisters, until the Lord's coming. See how the farmer waits for the land to yield its valuable crop, patiently waiting for the autumn and spring rains. James 5:7 (NASB)

It is most often a sign of blessing being poured out. As tragic as even the great flood was, part of its literary purpose is ultimately to express renewal of life and our covenantal relationship with God. So though I may not have always thought of rain in Autumn as a thing to delight in, the fact that it does come, and it does provide, reminds me of God's constant presence in our lives through all our seasons.

My hope is that the next time it rains one of those nourishing steady rains, maybe this Autumn, you can be reminded of God as well. Sometimes it's just what is needed to move things along. To push some dying leaves were they need to go, to quench the thirst of animals busy preparing for winter, to make us slow down for a much needed respite. Amen.
